Copenhagen, April 15, N. S. His Daniſh Majeſty has declared his Reſolution to recal Count Dehn from the Court of Madrid, and to ſend him with the Character of Plenipotentiary to the Hague.

Head Quarters at Alphen, April 25.

The Junction of the Army is now formed. On Sunday laſt the Auſtrian Corps of 49 Battalions, 39 Companies of Grenadiers, and 63 Squadrons, came and encamped on the Right; the Dutch have already in Camp 24 Battalions and 34 Squadrons; and this Day the laſt Regiments of Hanoverians and Heſſians came into Camp. It is expected the Army will march forward in three or four Days.

Hague, April 25, N. S. Our Advices of the French Operations in Dutch Flanders, by Way of Antwerp, are, that Sluys capitulated laſt Saturday: The Reports of the taking of Philippine, and the Surrender of Yſendyke, are not confirmed. The People of Zealand ſhew the greateſt Reſolution for the Defence of their Country, and have been encouraged by the Arrival of Commodore Mitchell with four Engliſh Men of War and a Bomb, ſo that there are now ten Ships of War in the Roads of Fluſhing and Ramekens. The Inhabitants of the Iſland of Tergoes, or Zuyd Beveland, are armed, and prepared againſt an Invaſion. M. de la Roque, who commands at Hulſt, gives great Hopes of his being able to maintain his Poſts in the Diſtrict of Hulſt, if the four Battalions and four Squadrons, to be embarked at Bergen-op-Zoom, can reach him. It is confirmed from Paris, that the French Eaſt India Fleet has been diſperſed in a Storm; and we have Advices this Day, that M. de St. George, with three Men of War that went out as Convoy to this Fleet, is returned to the Iſle d'Aic, and can give no Account of the reſt. Advices from Provence of the 9th Inſtant ſay, that of three Barks that had retired into Agay, one had been taken by an Engliſh Man of War; ſhe had on board 183 Men of the Regiment of Dunant; the two others got into Antibes, from whence the others, that had got in there before, were not yet ſailed for Genoa. From Bruſſels we learn, that M. de Saxe ſet out laſt Thurſday for Mechlin, Louvain, and Antwerp; and that he was to have an Interview with M. de Lowendahl, who commands the Expedition in Dutch Flanders. Laſt Sunday none of the French Troops had yet pitch'd their Tents. It is thought that M. de Clermont, with his Corps aſſembled about Sedan, inſtead of going to the Moſelle, as was thought at firſt, will have Orders to draw towards Namur. A ſecond Embarkation for Genoa, in the Ports of Provence, is talked of; and is to be commanded by M. de Boufflers.

Whitehall, April 15,

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint David Bruce, Eſq; to be Advocate-General and Judge Martial of all his Majeſty's Forces within that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Whitehall, April 4, 1747.

Whereas it has been repreſented to the King, that the Colliery at Etherly near Biſhop Auckland, in the County of Durham, was wilfully ſet on Fire, as is ſuppoſed, on or about the 28th of February laſt; His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in ſetting the ſaid Colliery on Fire, is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo as they, or any of them, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
